

UNDETERRED by six inches of ice, James Chenoweth and Jack Hartman of Saginaw start a plunge into a former gravel pit at Andersen Park, Juniata. Chenoweth, who lives at 1918 Genesee, and Hartman, of 2296 Iowa, are members of the Saginaw Valley Aqua-Fins. The group had made winter dives before Sunday but not into water completely ice-covered. Wearing wool gloves, socks and two suits of underwear, the two men spent about half an hour in the water, the temperature of which was about 28. (Saginaw News Photo by Donald C. McLellan).
