

Skin Diving Course Planned

A month-long course in skin and scuba diving will open Jan. 5 at the YMCA and conclude Feb. 9. Donald McLellan, Saginaw skin and scuba diving expert, will instruct the class which open to men and women 16 years of age or over. The class is limited to 12 persons. Fees are $5 for YMCA members and $8 for non-members. Class members must furnish their own masks, fins and snorkels. Further information can be had by calling Lyman Curtis, Y assistant physical director, at PL-2-2111.