National YMCA scuba instructors' certification was awarded to four Saginaw men at a recent three-day institute held at the Bay City YMCA. The four are Donald C. McClellan, Richard Heineman, George B. Morley and John Garner.

The Instructors' Certification Institute tested the abilities of 30 Michigan YMCA scuba diving instructors. An intensive 14-hour-a-day program featured instructors Jerry Dzindzeleta of Racine, Wis. Jack Howard and Don Evans of Port Huron. Lecturers included Dr. Daniel C. Kinsey of Delta College; Dr. Richard S. Ryan, City of Saginaw health officer, and Kerry King, former U. S. Navy underwater demolition team member. Charles O. Micklewright, Bay City YMCA physical director, was host.
