

Saginaw Underwater Explorers came up with their fourth successive victory in the Purple Tank event at Higgins Lake, according to Joseph G. Michaels, 2138 Passolt, president of the Explorers.

Six clubs competed in the major event of the treasurama, sponsored by the Michigan Skin Diving Council. Representing Saginaw were: Fred LeClair, 2317 Collingwood; Pat Tunney, 2330 Peale; Robert Nikodemus, 4870 Swarthout, Clarence Greenberg, 6824 Dixie Highway, and Robert Bailey, 787 N. Hamilton.

What's the Purple Tank event? A line stretched 100 yards between two floats, Lead batons are submerged about 30 feet and a "drop" man, using scuba equipment, descends, picks up the lead baton and passes it to the next man until the team completes the relay.