Awards Banquet/Club Potluck/Social Event

The banquet provided a fine needed break to the winter, as it was held last month at the Cunninghams. Hosted by Don and Georgia Cunningham, it was well attended by about 20 people. The attendees brought a great selection of food to share, everyone got their fill. And Mike brought some delicious gelatin things that made you want another. And another. After the eating was done, and some fine conversation was shared, the Diver of the Year Award was presented to Mike Peterson. Mike graciously and modestly accepted. (hey; who left the balloons outside?)

Who says Mike can't embarrass Laurie L.?

Final '04 Pool Swim

This was the last chance to fine-tune your gear before the cold water! Had a good turnout at the YWCA pool, and another chance to use Terry's hard diving helmet. The helmet had a history with the U.S. Navy; it's official ID is Morse MKXII SSDS. If you'd like more info on it, check online at <http://www.divingheritage.com/modernmorse.htm> We even got Elizabeth, the YWCA lifeguard, interested in the helmet But not interested enough to try it on. Terrific wind the day of the last pool swim; much more comfortable than out on the lake!

Mike the Pres has agreed to accept the role of dive coordinator until another soul is found. Ask Mike about volunteering to do a Haithco Park clean-up sometime this summer. FYI, VIP's will not be done this April due to lack of activity. It will be performed in May & June.

Club Cart @ FS Mall

As promised, Mike did get the club a display cart set up in the main corner of the mall. Club members took turns manning the cart; meeting the public, answering questions, and advertising the festival. We got a lot of interest, and some potential new members.

Activity at main mall intersection

And here they are! As promised! 50 (count 'em) beautiful swimsuit subjects frolicking on the beach, cavorting in the sand, soaking up the sun!
