Remember Our Troops!

Saginaw Underwater Explorers Officially Fifty!

Welcome to the new year, and our anniversary! According to ancient paper records, the SUE was actually formed as a club in 1959. It started as a group of divers meeting at Saginaw's old YMCA located at Ames and Michigan. There was even a forerunner to this group, known as the 'Aquafins'. (UrEd himself remembers attending a club meeting in the basement of a bank; 1964?) Perhaps our resident historian Prof. Sommers could be coerced into a presentation at an upcoming club meeting on these early beginnings. The SCOOP will attempt to include any stories of our early days through the '09 issues; feel free to contribute anything you have. And let's all plan some memorable events for this memorable year- what would you like the members in 2059 to read about you?

Good Showing for the SUE '08 Xmas Party! -

- a fine relaxing evening

Thanks to early and continued efforts by VP Piazza, the club was all set with reservations at Timbers restaurant this year. Approximately 20-25 SUE families attended; mixing and conversation starting around 6, followed by dinner.

After a fine meal, folks leaned back and enjoyed a very interesting slide presentation by Bill Atkins on some club history.

MC Piazza then resumed his post, and distributed raffle tickets to all present. Prizes of books, calendars, and a unique dive flag had been contributed by Dive and Glide. Pizza coupons had been contributed by Papa Johns. Thank you, contributors!

Finally; time to order the meal

Ric Mixer Presentation

Ric will be coming to the club meeting Jan13 to give a presentation on some of his dive explorations. The board plans to have business completed from 7-7:30, and welcome Ric at 7:30. A larger than normal turnout is expected, so come early enough to get a good seat. Bring a guest!

Manatee Tickle

Seeing no other dive report on my clipboard, let me take some space to relate my manatee dive. I spent the holidays in Florida with my daughter’s family, and she signed us up to pet the manatees at Crystal River. The dive shop furnished wet suits, fins, mask & snorkel, and placed us on a pontoon boat in a group of 10. We were out before light, but we beat a lot of other boats heading for the same area. The river might’ve been around 10’ deep, reasonably clear, and 72deg. The dive master gave us a lot of rules before we got in; Florida is serious about not bothering the animals, and threatens with heavy fines. But the manatees do like people and they did come over to us. I might’ve been the last one they came to. They did suddenly appear up against you, and they did roll over to get their bellies scratched. One pushed his face into my mask, and stared in at me! To finish off the dive, we went to the headwaters where you could see the water gushing up from springs. Really clear, with a lot of fish I’d only seen in an aquarium...
