Piazza's Host Great Picnic

Tony and Carol picked a beautiful summer day to invite the club over for the annual SUE picnic. Held at the Piazza oasis, the beauty of the location combined with all the food dishes offered guaranteed SUE social satisfaction. The group sat alongside the sparkling blue waters of the pool, which drew a number in to get wet before the food was served. A gorgeous variety of flowers provided a background for the far side.

It was a really nice club get-together; if you didn't make it this time we missed you. For Tony and Carol, thanks for your hospitality!

Late Notice; Petoskey Dive Excursion

From Mike - "I need to get a heads-up on who is planning to go to Petoskey Sept 19-20. I also need to know how many nights you plan to spend; some may be going up Friday nite thru Sunday, others coming going up Sat morn thru Sunday. I'm can reserve cabins in Charlevoix that sleep 4 (one double bed, 2 twins) for only $50 p/night (only $12.50 each with 4 divers; if you're shy about a double bed, bring an air mattress and sleeping bag LOL) Tim Hastings and Tony Piazza are bringing boats; Tony can take 3-4 divers, Tim 4-5. The more boats available, the less number of divers per boat, the easier it is. I will keep all of you who respond with intentions to go informed of who else is going for transportation/car pooling opportunities.

August Splash Dive- Haithco

Originally planned for Lake Fenton, the logistics got in the way so a few of the faithful went to Haithco instead. A few sailboats almost got in the way there...

OK; it's a windsurfer...

And here come the sailboats (photos by Prenzler)

Dive Team News

While Saginaw County has been relatively quiet through August, the team was called out to Lapeer and Bay counties to assist in some situations. As a result, they received some fine letters of appreciation from those counties. Congratulations, Team!

Here's a young man viewing Bob the diver at the team's 'National Night Out' exhibit.
