Remember Our Troops!

Last SUE Event of '09- Christmas Party!

If you missed the SUE Christmas Party a few weeks back, SUE missed you. Members and guests filled the tables, and enjoyed a great evening not to overlook a great meal. A special menu was provided by the Timbers to attendees. The meal was followed by a magic show given by Ken Kruska, a slide presentation on old Great Lakes wrecks by Bill Atkins, and a drawing for fine prizes MC'd by Tony Piazza. This would be the year that UrEd finally won something, really making this notable. Folks enjoyed a great time together, and the Christmas spirit was shared among all. For now; Happy New Year!

Special Book Offer, For SUE Members

Well-known photojournalist and SUE member RIC MIXTER now has written a book, "The Wheelsman". "Grab the wheel and hold on - as you experience four shipwrecks through the eyes of the men who were at the helm. "The Wheelsmen" chronicles several local history events including the worst storms (1913 and 1940), A horrible collision near the Mackinac Bridge, and the mysterious sinking of the Coast Guard cutter Escanaba. The four ships are the Cedarville, Novadoc, Escanaba and Hawgood. The books retail for $19.95 and are available from www.lakefury.com" He said that if you mention you are a member of SUE or the DT in the comments section, the cost will be reduced to $15!
