Remember Our Troops!

2015 Christmas Party at Timbers

And the club's (almost) all here!

Great festive way to finish the 2015 year! We gathered in our regular room; shared stories, and slowed down just a little in order to eat.

Who takes the alligators home for the winter?

The annual SUE Christmas Party is also the last club meeting of the year. If you needed to renew, that would've been an opportunity. You should remember your last chance at a $20 fee will be the upcoming Jan meeting. Then the fee goes back up to $25. Keep in mind it's also time to elect officers.

Hey!

Yes; both of you!

Friendly holiday atmosphere!

And the chance to update news.

-Meal over; time for the traditional drawing....

Better make sure Dad wins something; left out last year!

Ian wins the big one!

Ha! L.E. trying Bunny Ears on the master?

USLSS

Two points to anyone knowing USLSS stands for the United States Life Saving Service. Five more points to anyone knowing that was the forerunner of the US Coast Guard. 10 points to everyone who went to hear the very exceptional talk given at the Stein Haus(Bay City) by well known artist, author and historian, Robert McGreevy. Accompanied by multimedia, Robert showed the service this group performed in the thumb area. There is fantastic history of heroic events around here, Robert brought these to our awareness. Very fine show; TY Bill Atkins!

Cutest smile winner

Audience settling in to eat prior to the show. Robert McGreevy in gray sweater just left of Christmas Tree. (This Stein Haus is a great location for a dinner meeting! SUE might consider this for next year's party.)
