Discussed was upcoming use of the dive tank (nothing on the agenda for at least a month), zoo windows cleaning (time for another cleaning), dive trips (road trips coming in Aug & Sept), club picnic* (Wixom Lake on the 11th!), and next week's club dive (Krystal Lake!).

Afterthoughts...

*Keep your map from last year for the picnic? Bring a dish to pass, your own special beverage, and possibly a seat if you have a preference. Club is providing those special imported brats! (Last one to arrive gets awarded SCOOP Editor title)

Award-winning artistic photography; look closely ...

Bubble burst!

Read OK? Window is clean; water stirred up

Tues PM- June Fun Dive

Justin and Mike saved air from the am dive, and took their gear to Krystal Lake in Vassar for the monthly get-wet dive. UrEd made it also, and we were joined by new member Kim Belchak from Standish. It should be noted the campground has reduced their rates; now only 3$ to dive!

Surface view

Bottom view...

Justin and Mike scout Krystal Lake from the concrete block
(Kim spotted us because of that shirt...)

The camp ground was sparsely populated, and we got prime parking on the sites directly over the concrete block for easy entry. Mike found the hopper right away, and from there it was follow-the-rope to the boat. Good dive!
