Remember Our Troops!

Famous Club at Famous Dave's

Kim and Edith, Greeters!

The annual SUE Christmas Party was held for the first time at Famous Dave's Barbecue, and the change in venue brought a good turnout of club members. Treasurer Sommers even took a few renewals! Better turnout than last year; might've had something to do with that quality BBQ sauce! And yes; we missed you folks that couldn't make it.

East bound-

West bound-

Attendees became involved with their meal at this point...

Kim and Mike passing out treats after the meal

Take two!...

Pres Fabish came up with some prizes to raffle off, and Dave Sommers contributed some new wooden bird house crafts.

Holiday Spirit; except the bunny ears are misplaced

UnderWater Antics presents : Dave Trotter

Tim and Cheryl of UnderWater Antics had limited seating, but if you reserved yours early you enjoyed a great presentation by Dave Trotter, finder-of-shipwrecks. Dave, (w Bob Martelli) talked on 3 of his most recent finds, and showed very good pictures diving on them. For more details on his recent finds, see Cora below. Awesome show; TY UWA!

Tim introducing- Dave Trotter!

Really a quality show!

Dave demonstrating a find on the wreck (-UWA)

had the following marker made. They will place it at the site when the SUE club makes their annual cleaning of the cross this summer. Very nice!

RIP, Tim

Special Announcement-

As Dave finished his presentation, Tim took the podium with a very emotional talk. Tim and Cheryl (of UWA) had gone with SUE up to Petoskey this last summer to participate in cleaning the cross. They were very impressed with the site, and both surfaced with the same idea- place a memorial there themselves. In memory of Tim Troup, who lost his life diving the straights a few years back, Tim and Cheryl

John Heska gets his book autographed by Dave Trotter! (-UWA)
