May Minutes, by Justin-

Greeting divers,
The minutes are short this month since this month was VIP night.
Tonight was VIP night. We VIP'd 16 tanks and filled 12 tanks. We had a smaller turnout this year.
Mike Fabish is researching some weekends in June for our quarry trip in Ohio. If you have any suggestions as to what weekend works best, please email Mike Fabish. [ed- The quarry trip will be THIS weekend]
Our first fun dive is scheduled for May 16th at Haithco Park around 6:00. [Done; see following!-

-Down at submerged marker buoy

Divers followed the lines to the three boats; cleaning the growth off everything as they went. Boats are now reported as clean! They also reported good vis, with lots of fish!

Hearty wave from Justin...

Congratulations To-

Can You, or Someone You Know, Help?

“Help Needed from Disabled Divers”

*Good day,
We are conducting research on disabled diving and would appreciate any disabled divers, or instructors of disabled divers, completing our questionnaire. Cressi, one of the top manufacturers of diving gear, has given us several prizes for completing the questionnaire.
The primary goal of this research is to determine the influence of scuba diving on the overall quality of life of disabled divers and their instructors.
The questionnaire is at <https://goo.gl/forms/DsGfqc48YRq14m2F3>
and is available in English, Italian, Spanish and German.
Any help is greatly appreciated.
Kind regards, Mr. Armand Viljoen

(Why am I reminded of the club picnic?...)
